Maths for makers

Have you made garments, but are still looking to achieve the perfect fit for your shape?

Join us on this course to create bespoke pattern to fit your body. maths for makers course will introduce you to create dress block from using maths formula.

We will show you how to take accurate measurements, and guide you through how to fit the blocks, and adapt the pattern to make a simple shift dress that fits you perfectly.

When: Monday 13.01.26 - ends: 10.02.26
Time: 9.30- 12.30
Where: Thornhill lees community centre. Brewery lane WF129DU

For more information please contact
Adult and Community Education - ace@kirkleescollege.ac.uk or enrol at the centre on the day

Proof of identification, proof of address, income, Home Office documents and NI number required at registration. Fee assessment is mandatory and fees may apply.

KIRKLEES COLLEGE