

MISOGYNY, THE MANOSPHERE AND INCEL MOVEMENT FREE VIRTUAL TRAINING

The Manosphere is a network of online men's communities promoting anti-feminist and sexist beliefs encouraging resentment, misogyny, hatred or even violence towards women and girls, and also includes the Incel movement as well as potential links to extremist groups.

Leeds Prevent have seen an increase in support for misogynistic influencers and content encouraging misogyny online. A rise in these types of influencers and content has captured the interest and support of many young people especially teenage boys, with worrying content and narratives being shared online. This training is for anyone that works with young people.

THE TRAINING WILL COVER THE FOLLOWING TOPICS:

- How the Manosphere is made up and what parts it includes
- Where the Manosphere exists
- What is a Incel and exploring Inceldom - an Incel
- Understand terminology and speech used within the Manosphere and Incel culture
- Explore influence in popular culture and emerging concerns
- Real life case studies
- Look at vulnerabilities, signs and behaviours
- How to tackle and support concerns

For more information and to book onto the training please email:
prevent@leeds.gov.uk

Leeds
Prevent
Together against radicalisation and extremism

Leeds
CITY COUNCIL